Belgian optical cable for sale manufacturer

Overview

As an installer since 1998, Technologies & Consulting offers the services of its team of technicians in the cabling sector, using both copper cables and fiber optics.

Key Takeaways

Belram, Alcadon, PROCAB, and A-NET are among the notable Belgian brands involved in optical cable manufacturing and distribution.

Key Belgian Optical Cable Brands

Belram is a leading distributor and importer of optical fiber products in Belgium and Luxembourg. They supply a wide range of fiber optic cables, connectors, adapters, and networking tools, catering to professional markets such as audiovisual, telecom, industrial, and medical sectors. Belram is also the official importer and distributor for Belden, a globally recognized brand for high-quality optical and industrial cabling solutions.

Alcadon (formerly 6X International) specializes in fiber and copper cabling for building infrastructure, data centers, and industrial applications. They offer high-quality optical fiber products designed to withstand challenging environments and maintain reliable network connectivity.

PROCA

B focuses on innovative connections for the professional cable industry, including high-quality network and optical cables. Their portfolio emphasizes advanced solutions and sustainability, making them a key player in the Belgian cable manufacturing sector. A-NET is a specialized manufacturer and service provider in telecommunications, particularly in fiber optic installations for FTTH (Fiber to the Home).

They provide Optical Network Termination Points, PON systems, and comprehensive support for fiber optic activities.

Additional Manufacturers

Other Belgian companies involved in optical cable manufacturing include Netconnect, which provides structured cabling and fiber optic installation services, and Hubiefiber, which offers fiber optic cabling, repairs, and technical support. For a broader list of suppliers, platforms like Trademo provide detailed directories of optical cable manufacturers and exporters in Belgium.

Summary

Belgium hosts a variety of optical cable manufacturers and distributors, ranging from large-scale suppliers like Belram and Alcadon to specialized service providers like PROCAB and A-NET. These companies serve diverse sectors including telecom, audiovisual, industrial, and medical, offering both standard and customized fiber optic solutions.
