• Electrical Switches: Cord inline switches, foot switches, European, USA, British, and industrial plugs & sockets, including PRCD, GFCI, and ALCI models .
Certifications and Quality

Dongya maintains ISO9001, ISO14001, ISO45001, and IATF16949 certifications, and many products meet international standards such as CCC, UL, CE, BSCE, and ETL/CETL . Their quality assurance programs ensure compliance with safety and performance requirements, making them suitable for global markets.

Direct Sales and Wholesale
• Bulk Purchasing: Verified suppliers offer bulk discounts and trusted deals for fiber optic switches and optical cable heads .

• OEM Services: Dongya provides custom solutions for specific project requirements, including tailored switch designs and optical components .

• Global Reach: Products are exported to over 200 countries, with responsive customer service and after-sales support .
How to Purchase

Interested buyers can contact Dongya manufacturers directly through B2B platforms such as Go4WorldBusiness, Made-in-China, Europages, and Trader-China to request quotations, product catalogs, and bulk order options . These platforms provide verified supplier listings and facilitate direct communication for wholesale transactions. By sourcing directly from Dongya, buyers can access high-quality fiber optic switches, optical cable heads, and related electrical components at competitive prices with reliable delivery and technical support.
