Considerations for Choosing a Supplier
• Certification and Testing: Ensure panels are type-tested and comply with international standards.

• Customization: Suppliers like KSA and EISCO offer tailored solutions for specific project requirements.

• Material and Durability: Choose enclosures made from steel, stainless steel, or high-performance plastics depending on environmental conditions.

• Project Experience: Suppliers with experience in large-scale infrastructure, banking, or healthcare projects can provide reliable support and technical guidance. For projects in Egypt requiring integrated distribution boxes, partnering with KSA El-Tholathia, EISCO Egypt, or Schneider Electric Egypt ensures high-quality, certified, and customizable solutions suitable for industrial, commercial, and infrastructure applications.
