

A stable fiber optic connector manufacturer in Southeast Asia

Overview

At the core of fiber optics are components and systems that allow precise control over light transmission, including couplers, connectors, and optical fibers.

Key Takeaways

Several companies in Southeast Asia manufacture and supply fiber optic connectors, including FiberTek, Actenn, LinkStar Microtronics, and FiberOpto Asia, with operations across Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia, and other regional markets. Key Companies in Singapore: FiberTek: Established in 1999, FiberTek is a one-stop provider of fiber optic products, including connectors, patch cords, adapters, and cables, serving both local and international markets. Actenn: Specializes in precision-engineered fiber optic solutions for telecommunications, data centers, defense, and industrial applications, including high-quality connectors and assemblies.

Link

Star Microtronics Pte. Ltd: Focuses on passive and active optical components, including connector manufacturing, and provides integrated solutions for optical and wireless communication.

Fiber

Opto Asia Pte Ltd: Offers customized fiber optic products and solutions, including connectors, across multiple Southeast Asian countries such as Malaysia, Indonesia, Brunei, Vietnam, Myanmar, Thailand, and the Philippines.

Other Notable Suppliers in Southeast Asia

Advanced Electronic Products Pte Ltd: Supplies fiber optic connectors, patch panels, and related telecommunication products in Singapore.

Tele

Science Singapore: Provides a broad range of ICT and fiber optic products, including connectors, for enterprise and industrial applications. FiberOpticToolsCenter (PT. PAWAMA): Based in Indonesia, this supplier offers fiber optic connectors and tools for network installations.

Regional Presence

Many of these companies not only manufacture connectors but also provide fiber optic cables, patch cords, adapters, and network integration services. Companies like FiberOpto Asia and FiberTek have a regional footprint, serving multiple Southeast Asian countries, which is advantageous for large-scale deployments or multi-country projects.

Summary

For businesses seeking fiber optic connectors in Southeast Asia, Singapore-based manufacturers like FiberTek, Actenn, and LinkStar Microtronics are prominent options, while regional suppliers such as FiberOpto Asia and PT.

PAWAM

A provide broader coverage across the region. These companies offer both standard and customized connectors, along with complementary fiber optic products and services, making them suitable for telecom, data center, and industrial applications.
