The cost of metal optical cables is largely influenced by the current market prices of copper and aluminum:

• Copper: Prices are updated daily according to the London Metal Exchange (LME) and Deutsches Elektrolytkupfer (DEL) markets. Copper prices fluctuate based on global demand, supply, and currency exchange rates .

• Aluminum: Similarly, aluminum prices are tracked on LME and DEL markets, with daily updates and historical trends available for analysis . • Download manufacturer price lists: Visit Prysmian's official document center to access the latest optical cable prices by region .
