Key Takeaways

Brilltech Engineers Pvt. Ltd. and Asters Maldives are key suppliers of fireproof cable trays in the Maldives, offering in-stock and customizable solutions. Local Manufacturers and Suppliers1.

Brilltech Engineers Pvt. Ltd. Brilltech Engineers is a well-established manufacturer and supplier of electrical cable trays in the Maldives.

They provide a comprehensive range of standard and customized cable trays, including fireproof options suitable for industrial and commercial applications. The company has ISO-certified products and caters to client-specific requirements, ensuring compliance with international quality standards. They have served clients such as Hero, Kia, Bosch, and Honda, indicating reliability and experience in large-scale projects.

Customers can contact their experts directly for inquiries and orders. 2. Asters Maldives Asters Maldives offers a variety of metal cable trays in stock, including bundles with connectors and screws.

While not all products are fireproof, their metal trays are suitable for high-temperature and fire-resistant installations. Some items are available for immediate purchase, while others are on pre-order with estimated delivery dates. Their catalog includes stainless steel and aluminum options, which are commonly used in fireproof applications.

3. Europages Supplier Listings Europages lists multiple companies providing fireproof steel cable trays in the Maldives. Brands like Aestuver, Niedax, and VALDINOX specialize in high-performance fire protection and cable-laying systems.

These suppliers offer steel, stainless steel, PVC, GRP, and aluminum cable trays, along with fire-stopping accessories and installation support. This is a useful resource for comparing manufacturers and selecting a supplier based on material, certification, and project requirements.

Material and Certification Considerations

Materials: Steel, stainless steel, aluminum, GRP/FRP composites. Steel and stainless steel are preferred for fireproof applications. Certifications: Look for ISO certification, UL certification, or compliance with local fire safety standards.

Accessories: Fireproof cable trays often include connectors, brackets, and fire-stopping cushions for wall and ceiling penetrations.

Recommendations

Contact Brilltech Engineers for customized fireproof cable trays and immediate local support. Check Asters Maldives for in-stock metal trays suitable for fire-resistant installations. Use Europages listings to explore additional suppliers and compare materials, certifications, and installation services.

These options ensure that you can source fireproof cable trays in the Maldives with reliable delivery, quality assurance, and technical support.
