

Price of Magnetic Modular Lights in Singapore

Overview

Discover the versatility of magnetic track rail lighting systems at Lightsmart SG. These innovative solutions allow for customizable lighting layouts, providing flexibility and efficiency in any space.

Key Takeaways

Magnetic Modular Lights in Singapore typically range from SGD 20 to SGD 150 per unit, depending on brand, features, and type.

Online Marketplace Pricing

On Lazada Singapore, Magnetic Module LED lights are available from various sellers, offering a wide range of prices. Basic models start around SGD 20–30, while premium or smart-controlled modules with dimming and color options can cost up to SGD 150 per unit. Lazada also provides discounts, bundle deals, and free shipping vouchers, making it convenient to compare prices and select the best option.

Retail and Specialty Stores

Specialty lighting stores like Lightsmart SG, Smart-Home, and Yafen Singapore offer magnetic track lighting systems that include modular lights. Prices for these systems vary based on the track length, number of modules, and additional features such as smart control, dimming, or COB LED technology. Individual magnetic modules in these stores generally start from SGD 50 and can go higher for advanced models with energy-efficient or smart features.

Factors Affecting Price

Type of LED module: Standard vs.

CO

B or high-output LEDs
Smart features: Dimming, color temperature adjustment, or app control
Track system compatibility: Some modules are sold as part of a track system, which may increase overall cost
Brand and warranty: Established brands with onsite warranty or professional installation may charge more
Recommendations
For budget-friendly options, Lazada.sg offers competitive prices and frequent promotions. For high-end or smart lighting, consider stores like Smart-Home or Lightsmart SG, which provide professional installation and warranty support. Always check seller ratings and customer reviews to ensure product quality and authenticity.

By comparing online and retail options, you can find Magnetic Modular Lights in Singapore that fit both your budget and functional requirements.
