

Price quotes from Chinese galvanized cable tray manufacturers

Overview

"Galvanized Cable Tray Price" Factory direct options come straight from the manufacturer, ensuring competitive pricing and available in trendy configuratio.

Key Takeaways

Galvanized cable trays in China are available from factory-direct suppliers with prices typically ranging from $5 to $50 per meter depending on type, size, and customization options.

Overview of Pricing

Standard Hot-

Dipped Galvanized Cable TraysPrice range: $10–$50 per meter depending on width, height, and load capacity. Suitable for heavy-duty applications and harsh environments due to high corrosion resistance.

Lightweight or OEM Galvanized Cable Trays

Price range: $5–$20 per meter for standard sizes and bulk orders. Often used in commercial or residential projects where load requirements are moderate.

Customized or Factory-

Direct Options

Prices vary based on length, width, perforation type, and coating thickness. Suppliers like ACE Electric and Tianjin Baoli Gold Pipe Co., Ltd offer tailored solutions with competitive pricing for bulk orders.

Factors Affecting Price

Material and Coating: Hot-dipped galvanized trays are more expensive than pre-galvanized trays due to superior corrosion protection. Tray Type: Ladder, perforated, and solid-bottom trays have different costs; ladder trays are generally more expensive. Load Capacity: Trays designed for higher cable loads or longer spans cost more.

Order Quantity: Bulk purchases often qualify for discounts, especially from factory-direct suppliers. Customization: OEM or custom dimensions increase the price but allow precise fit for specific projects.

Recommended Sourcing Platforms

Alibaba: Direct access to multiple Chinese manufacturers with price quotes and bulk order options.

Made-in-

China: Offers factory-direct pricing and OEM options for various galvanized cable tray configurations.

AC

E Electric: Professional manufacturer providing wholesale and customized galvanized cable trays. Tradewheel: Connects buyers with 178 registered Chinese cable tray suppliers for global trade.

Tips for Buyers

Request quotes from multiple suppliers to compare prices and specifications. Consider shipping costs and import duties when calculating total cost. Verify quality certifications and material standards to ensure compliance with electrical system requirements.

Explore volume discounts and OEM deals for cost-effective procurement. By considering these factors and sourcing directly from reputable Chinese manufacturers, buyers can obtain galvanized cable trays at competitive prices while ensuring quality and compliance.
