Overview

Spectrometers | element14 SingaporeBuy Spectrometers. element14 Singapore offers fast quotes, same day dispatch, fast delivery, wide inventory, datasheets.

Key Takeaways

You can find a wide range of spectrometers in Singapore through specialized distributors, online marketplaces, and scientific equipment suppliers.Online Retailers
• element14 Singapore offers a variety of spectrometers including CCD and NIR detectors, with options for USB, SPI, and UART interfaces. They provide fast delivery and technical support for research and industrial applications (element14 Singapore), .

• Lazada Singapore lists consumer and educational spectrometer kits, portable devices, and optical instruments suitable for hobbyists or light laboratory use (Lazada Singapore), .

• Carousell Singapore features both new and used spectrophotometers, including models like X-Rite i1Basic Pro 3 and NanoDrop ND-1000, suitable for color calibration and UV/Vis measurements (Carousell Singapore), .
Specialized Distributors
• EastWest SVC supplies high-performance Optical Emission Spectrometers (OES), Raman, LIBS, and other spectroscopy instruments for industrial and research applications. They cater to metals analysis, laboratory research, and process engineering (EastWest SVC), .

• EINST Technology Pte Ltd provides a range of spectrometers including Andor spectrographs, Avantes fiber optic systems, PicoQuant fluorescence spectrometers, and Raman spectrometers for advanced research and industrial applications (EINST Technology), .

• Asia Mattelab distributes benchtop NMR spectrometers from Oxford Instruments, ideal for chemical analysis, reaction monitoring, and academic research (Asia Mattelab), .

Laboratory Equipment Suppliers

• Hanna Instruments Singapore offers portable and benchtop spectrophotometers with high resolution, low stray light, and customizable measurement methods for laboratory and field use (Hanna Instruments), .

• Chem On Singapore provides portable spectrophotometers like the CS-520, featuring Bluetooth connectivity, automatic calibration, and multi-function measurement capabilities (Chem On Singapore), .

• Edmund Optics Singapore stocks optical spectrometers for UV-VIS, NIR, Raman, and fluorescence applications, along with accessories for laboratory and industrial integration (Edmund Optics), .

• Gaia Science Pte Ltd supplies a broad range of scientific instruments including spectrometers for research, industrial, and educational purposes, with options for consultation and turnkey laboratory solutions (Gaia Science), .

Recommendations

• For industrial or research-grade spectrometers, consider EastWest SVC, EINST Technology, or Edmund Optics for high-performance instruments.

• For educational or portable spectrometers, Lazada, Carousell, Chem On, and Hanna Instruments provide accessible options.

• For NMR spectroscopy, Asia Mattelab is the primary distributor in Singapore. These suppliers cover a wide spectrum of spectrometer types, from UV-VIS and NIR to Raman and NMR, ensuring options for both professional and educational needs.
